Benedict XVI and the Eucharistic Revival

Note: This is not the homily. That can be found on our website.

By: Dr. Tim O'Malley

January 10, 2023

This is the next part of a series highlighting the Eucharistic legacy of Pope Benedict XVI. The first section focused on "The Eucharist is a Mystery to be Believed." This week Dr. O'Malley emphasizes "The Eucharist Is a Mystery to Be Celebrated."

The Eucharist Is a Mystery to Be Celebrated

Of course, most of us experience (as Benedict XVI notes) the Eucharist not as a series of intellectual propositions but a concrete, religious practice. We go to Mass. But if there is anything that has the potential to rip apart the Church right now, it's a discussion of the Mass.

Go into any parish in the United States, and you will find people with definite thoughts about how the Eucharist should be celebrated. It should include only chant, or it should never include chant. It should be done only in Latin or never in Latin. The priest should face the same direction as the people who are praying (toward the east) or the priest should face the people as he is praying. We should put up altar rails again, or we should take them all down.

Benedict XVI had little patience with this kind of liturgical in-fighting. It once again misses what is happening in the Eucharistic mystery: the advent of Jesus Christ who comes, himself, to feed us with his Body and Blood as we remember and give thanks for what God has accomplished, living out through this prayer our primordial creatures made for praise. This is the mystery of love that we must actively participate in. Benedict XVI quotes from Vatican II on this point, reminding us that:

"...the faithful 'should be instructed by God's word and nourished at the table of the Lord's Body. They should give thanks to God. Offering the immaculate Victim, not only through the hands of the priest but also together with him, they should learn to make an offering of themselves. Through Christ, the Mediator, they should be drawn day by day into ever more perfect union with God and each other.' " (Sacramentum Caritatis, no. 52)

A Eucharistic Revival, therefore, will attend to the formation of the priest and the faithful alike in this kind of active participation. Active participation is recognizing that what we pray at Mass is intended to lead us more deeply into union with God and one another. We listen to Sacred Scripture, chewing upon the sweet words of salvation in the assembly with one another. We each make the offering of the Eucharist. The priest does so in the person of Christ and the Church and the assembly as the baptized faithful called to make their whole lives a return gift of love to the Father.

Reflection Questions:

- 1) How do you encounter Jesus Christ when you go to Mass? Are there concrete practices that you might adopt to participate more actively in the Mass?
- 2) Think about something that you want to offer up to God the next time you go to Mass. What is it? Remember what you want to offer at Mass when the priest exhorts you to lift up your hearts to the Lord.

Welcome Emmi Rae Compton!

The whole parish congratulates Chase and Raegan on the baptism of their daughter, Emmi Rae. We are glad to have her as part of the little communion of saints here in Jeanerette!

Fete Dieu du Teche Volunteers

The annual Eucharistic Procession on boats down the Bayou Teche (Tuesday, Aug 15) will be stopping in Jeanerette this year. If you have a boat that you'd like to join the procession, please email fetedieuduteche@gmail.com

We also need volunteers for the following things:

- + Setup and decoration of an altar by the bayou
- + At least four men to carry the canopy
- + Setup of a speaker system
- + Communication with OL of the Rosary Parish
- + Advertising

If you'd like to help with these things, please let us know. Either way, please make an effort to attend the great event and invite others to join!
